They follow the same prophet Muhammad. Both offer their prayers five times a day. Both fast in the month of Ramadan. They both go for hajj, pilgrimage to Mecca. Those who follow Prophet Muhammad, in accordance with his sayings and actions, are called Sunni and those who in addition follow the sayings and views of Ali (Muhammad's son-in- law), as the rightful successor to Prophet Muhammad (P), are called Shia. Shia means a partisan (party of Ali) and

His father died before his birth and his mother died when he was six. He did not attend a formal school since he was raised first by a nurse as it was the custom those days, and then by his grandfather and uncle.But all kind of knowledge was given to him from Allah Subhanho wa Taala. As a young man, he was known as a righteous person who used to meditate in a cave. At age 40, he was given the prophet hood when the angel, Gabriel, appeared in the cave. Subsequently, the revelations came over 23 years and were compiled in the form of a book called the Qur'an which is the final and the last word of God. The Quran has been preserved, unchanged, in its original form and confirms the truth in the Torah, the psalms and the Gospel.

Question: What is the Exact meaning of Uswa? Whether the COLLECTIVE or The INDIVIDUAL life of Prophet S.A.W is Pracrical Example for us.

Answer: The Uswa means example, pattern or way of life. The individual and the collective life of our Holy prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) both are an excellent pattern for us, and we have to both of them. Allah (S.W.T) says in Holy Qura'n: "Indeed in the Messenger of Allah (Muhammad SAW) you have a good example to follow for him who hopes in (the Meeting with) Allah and the Last Day and remembers Allah much" (Surah: Al-Ahzab Verse:21) But, there are some exceptional acts and characteristics which are associated with our Holy prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) and we never follow these for example, keeping 9 wives at a time in Nikah, obligation (farziyyat) of Tahajjud prayer, Fasting without any break (soam-e-wisaal) seeing of Allah (S.W.T) in this life etc…… Beside these exceptional cases the whole life of our Holy Pprophet Muhammad (S.A.W) is good example for every Muslim to success in this life and in hereafter.

Question: If HAZRAT MUHAMMAD(SAW)was just like a normal human, with no extra ordinary things then why ALLAH made him(SAW) a messenger and not someone other?

Answer: It is a fact without a doubt that Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), like all the other prophets was a human and a mortal. The prophets frequently stated, and proved with their acts, that they were mortals like everybody, that they would be held responsible for their acts of worship and for all orders given to them by Allah, that they had no immunity, that they had no freedom or choice to act against the orders of Allah which they conveyed to the people, rather that they abstained from such acts and sought shelter in Allah. To those who were baffled by the fact that a human was sent as a prophet, Allah reminded the people that the previous prophets who had been sent to the people had been mortals who had fathered children, ate and drank, and walked in the markets among the people and Allah explained that they should not see this as being unusual. He could have sent them prophets who were angels, yet even if angels had been sent, people would still think in a similar way and be amazed and confused. Allah depicts and eternalizes his humane and compassionate identity in the following words: "Now hath come unto you an Messenger from amongst yourselves: it grieves him that ye should perish: ardently anxious is he over you: to the Believers is he most kind and merciful, but if they turn away, Say: "(Allah) sufficeth me" (Al-Tauba, 9/128). "Thou wouldst only, perchance, fret thyself to death, following after them, in grief, if they believe not in this Message" (Al-Kahf, 18/6).

Question: What is the difference between "NABUWAT" and "RISALAT"?

Answer: Difference between "NABUWAT" and "RISALAT"is as difference between "Nabee" and "Rasool". Different Scholars have different point of views about this. I quote you a great scholar Imam Fakhruddeen Raazi who has explained the differences between a Rasool (prophet) and a Nabi (messenger).He says: A Rasool is one who has performed miracles and has received a new Divine book. He establishes a new code of law (Shar'iah) and cancels the previous code of law and book. He has also visibly seen the angel that comes with the Divine message, and the Rasool is commanded to invite the people towards the Deen. A Nabi is one who is not given a new book, but rather establishes the book which was revealed to the Rasool before him. He does not cancel the book and the code of law which was in trend before him. He sees the angel in a dream or the Rasool of the time informs him that he has been chosen as a Nabi. "(Tafseer Mafaateehul Ghayb known as (Tafseer e Kabeer le Imam Razi) V23 p43

Question: What is the meaning of sincereity in Faith?

Answer: Sincereity in faith means to perform an act for the sake of Allah only?

Question: What is meant by the Miracle of prophets?

Answer: First of all one must be aware about the term miracle so my dear the term miracle means “a supernatural event”. In other words 'A miracle is simply an event which is not explicable in any normal way'. Scientists may think of a 'miracle' as an extraordinary event which have no scientific explanation. Now the question arises what are the miracles of prophets? A miracle of prophet is something extraordinary which happened in the favor of prophets and is thought to be when Allah does something to break all the normal rules and laws of nature. Allah , sometimes ,makes His prophets show something’s against the usual course which is beyond the capacity of others so that , on seeing it , people may realize that they have been set by Allah . such acts are called Mu’jizahas (miracles) For example the incidence of Ascension {Mi’raj} of Holy Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) is a miracle. This incidence took place and the prophet SAW was transported from Makkah to Quds. Such incidents always happened with prophets and to have a firm belief on these miracles is an integral part of our faith.
